some cash flow with that.

And I have to put a price on everything I want them to get into. Sure.

Mixing in the family is fucked up though.

I know.

And I feel my siblings don't appreciate it.

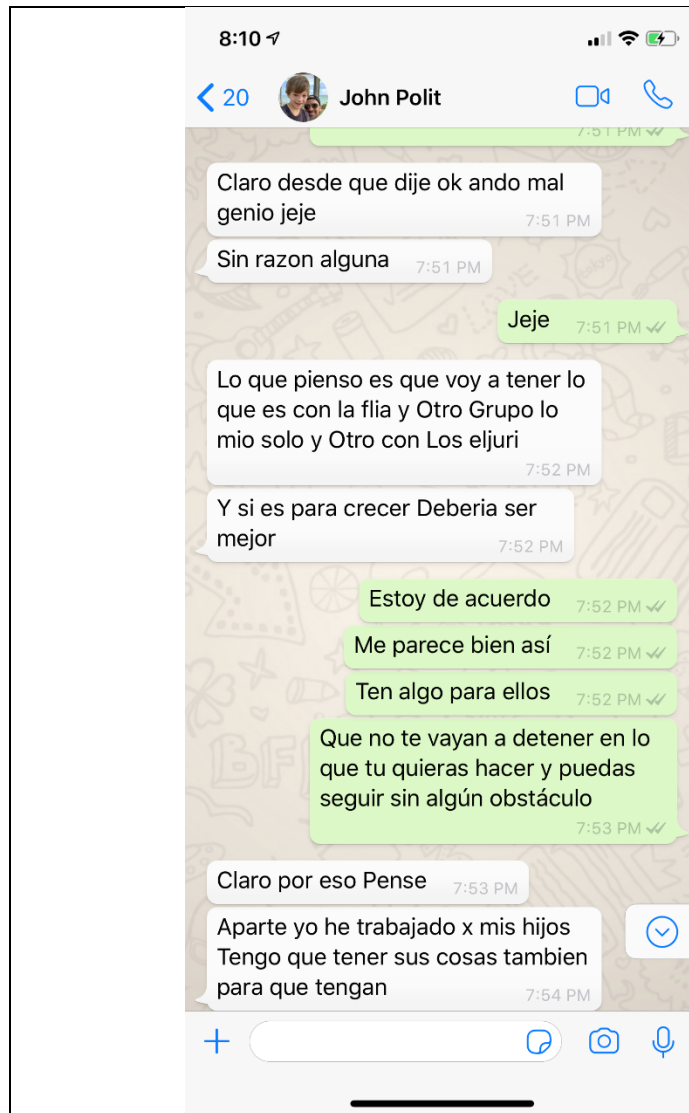

Charles goes and I feel he audits me.

I understand.

More than anything, he wants me to teach them so it can push them to have their things.

You have to be careful... Just for the simple fact that you shouldn't get into a fight with them.

Sure, since I said "Okay" I've been in a bad mood. Heh,heh.

Sure, since I said "Okay" I've been in a bad mood. Heh,heh.

For no reason whatsoever.

Heh, heh.

What I'm thinking is that I'm going to have whatever is with the family, and another group only for me, and another one with the Eljuri folks.

And if it's for growing, then it should be better.

I do agree.

I think that's good.

Have something for them.

They shouldn't stop you from whatever you want to do and for you to continue without any obstacles.

Sure, that's what I thought.
Besides, I've worked for my kids.

I have to have their things so they can have as well.
